MMUK's SHIPPING POLICY

Being mindful of the charity's objects - to advance the Christian religion by furthering the charitable activities of the Church of the Province of Melanesia in the Province of Melanesia and the United Kingdom - shipping sent by MMUK and labeled as charity goods, to prevent import tax, must only be:

- Items requested by the Anglican Church of Melanesia, its institutions, the four Anglican Religious Orders and the Mothers' Union.
- Items are for the sole use of these organisations and not to be sold or given to other groups or individuals.
- All items to be seen and packed in the UK by MMUK authorised staff, trustees or volunteers.
- No goods can be sent via a MMUK shipment and labelled as charity goods, unless they meet these criteria.
- No goods can be sent from private individuals in the UK to private individuals in Melanesia.
- MMUK may agree to ship ex-missionaries' belongings under a separate shipment agreement. This to be agreed in advance by Trustees.
